

CMI
I B.Sc.
English

Date: 27/11/2025

Max marks:60

Time :2 hrs

Section A: Answer any 4 of the following in 150 words. 10x4=40 marks

- 1) In spite of Rakesh's best efforts, his father was full of bitterness and frustration towards the end of his life. How could Rakesh as well as his father have avoided such a situation?
- 2) Explain and comment on the following quotations:
 - a) O you hard hearts, you cruel men of Rome, Knew you not Pompey?
 - b) When Caesar says, 'Do this', it is performed.
 - c) Beware the Ides of March.
 - d) He thinks too much, Such men are dangerous
 - e) If I were Brutus now and he were Cassius, he should not humour me.
- 3) 4) Discuss 'My Last Duchess' as a dramatic monologue
- 4) 5) Imagine you are Stanley. Make a diary entry where you express your emotions after finding Dr.Livingstone
- 5) 6) Contrast the character traits in Ulysses and Telemachus. What are your leanings?

Section B: 20 marks

- I) Say whether the past tense endings -ed are to be pronounced with a -t , -d or -id. Give reason for your answer.The first one is done for you: 5 marks
 1. Talked -ed is pronounced with a -t because the last sound of the root word is the voiceless consonant /k/
 2. judged 3.prayed 4. coughed 5. demanded 6.buzzed

II)

Here is a letter written by a friend with a limited vocabulary. Try replacing 'amazing' and 'rotten' with other suitable adjectives:

Hi Pradeep,

How are you? You wanted to know about my trip to Goa. Here you are...

The rooms the agents had booked were amazing, but the cabs were rotten.

On the second day they had arranged for a shopping experience and I tell you the shops were simply amazing and by the time we got back it was pretty late and we had to settle for some rotten food.

Next day we were taken to the Church of St. Francis which was absolutely amazing. As we had still some time left the guide suggested a short movie 'Shoot out at Lonawala' which was so rotten we wanted to shoot the guide.

We broke away from the group the following day to visit an old friend. He lives in an old mansion which I am told is 300 years old. It was truly amazing.

More amazing were the two horses that kept galloping round the amazing lawns. On the whole the trip was amazing.

Your bff

Savitha

III) Cloze test

Fill in the blanks choosing any word you consider suitable. Please note that it should not be more than one word. 5 marks

One day in the -1—of 1905 Albert Schweitzer, a tall, -2—young man of thirty one, who was Principal of the theological college at Strasbourg University and a -3—at a local church, -4—up a journal of a French Missionary Society from his desk and started to -5—the pages.

His attention ^{was} at once -6—by an article describing the -7—conditions of poverty and disease in which the -8—of Equatorial West Africa were living. Due to lack of medical -9—entire tribes were stricken with diseases like leprosy and thousands of them died every year. The article made an urgent -10-- for young missionaries and doctors to go to West Africa to help the suffering people.

IV) Give the meanings of any 5 of the following idioms and use them in sentences of your own: 5 marks

Head over heels

To spill the beans

Out of the blue

To have butterflies in one's stomach

The last straw

To keep fingers crossed

Catch red handed

If you have time, write a feedback on the course commenting on the content, methodology and evaluation. no marks.